In Loving Memory of

dale fredrick joseph mcandrews

(January 22, 1940 - October 4, 2007)

I only remember two kisses - the first and the last. The first, with my love and the last, with death. The first brought happiness and the last relief!

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest dale fredrick joseph mcandrews who was born on January 22, 1940 and passed away on October, 4, 2007. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. They are set against a mottled, olive-green background that has a subtle, grainy texture, resembling aged paper or parchment. The lighting is soft, creating a gentle glow around the roses.

Memories are treasures, No one can steal, Death is a heartache, No one can heal Some may forget you, Now that you're gone, But we will remember, No matter how long

A million times I've needed you. A million times I've cried, If love could have saved you You never would of died. Things we feel most deeply Are the hardest to say, My dear Dad, I loved you each and every day. If I could have one lifetime wish One dream come true, I'd pray to God with all my heart For yesterday and you.

I once had something special That money could not buy I had a very special Dad And had to say good-bye Our memories and photos Are all I have to touch Of a very special person Whom I loved and miss so much. And when I feel lonely And tears fill my eyes I think of you at peace And know I shouldn't cry So I try to hide my heartache As you would want me to, And when I cry my tears alone No one hers them but you Love your daughter Margie

Grandpa

Clouds are forming in the sky;

I feel like I could lie down and cry.

I miss all the things we used to do,

But knowing that I can't

Makes me realize

How much I loved you.

Family reunions won't be the same;

I miss you so much.

Only time could stop this pain.

I hope you had a wonderful life,

In spite of all those useless fights;

And when it rains I'll think only of you.

There would just be one thing I would do;

I'll get a picture of you and sit on my bed,

And my thoughts would only be of you -

Because in my opinion you are not dead.

All the family misses you,

And I do too.

I can't wait for that one day

When I would be reunited with

You.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

January 22, 1940

Born in St. John's New Brunswick on January 22, 1940.

October 4, 2007

Grandpa you were such a strong person you fought 2 months in the hospital and everytime any of us seen you had a smile even in the most difficult. Then it was the time you had to rest oh boy did you rest.... you were snoring louder then ive heard a person snore that point i had to leave remembering you sleeping at peace. Then October 4 2007 the lord took you from us into heaven where you will not encounter any more fear any more pain and best of all you are able to look down on each and everyone of your family and friends and protect them and watch us all grow. R.I.P. grandpa we love you>
